

3rd Speech Language Therapists' Congress of Baltic States: Apraxia of Speech

We would like to invite speech language therapists who work in health care or educational institutions to participate actively in 3rd Speech Language Therapists' Congress of Baltic States: Apraxia of Speech.

The congress will be held on 22nd–23rd of April in 2016 in Estonia (Tartu). At this conference we are planning a scientific program as well as a training program.

The purpose of this congress is to share interdisciplinary knowledge, experience and attitudes to apraxia of speech (the mechanism and symptoms of apraxia of speech, differential diagnostics, aims and methods of therapy).

Training program will be held by:

Marja-Liisa Mailend (University of Arizona, USA): apraxia of speech in adults

Anita McAllister (Karolinska Institute, Sweden): childhood apraxia of speech

Languages: Estonian (with translation to English) and English (with translation to Estonian).

Place of the congress: Science Centre AHHA
(300 metres from the bus station), Sadama 1,
Tartu, Estonia. <http://www.ahhaa.ee/en>
